

INTRODUCTION & MOTIVATION STATEMENT

Objective: Application for a 6 to 12-month Management Training Program in Rooms Division in Southeast Asia

Dear Sir / Madam,

I have almost fifteen years of leadership experience in the real estate (including hospitality) and finance industries, having occupied managerial positions such as project manager, asset manager, project director and asset management director.

Wishing now to evolve in the hospitality industry, I have recently done an Executive master's in international hotel management at Les Roches Marbella Global Hospitality.

During my internship at the 5-star hotel 'The Ritz Carlton, Abama' totaling 460 rooms, I am currently involved in the front of the house operations by practicing and bringing my contributions in different roles (bellboy, valet, doorman, receptionist, and waiter). I am also trained to supervision tasks. Although this internship was not mandatory to validate my executive master's in international Hotel Management at Les Roches, I decided to take the opportunity of this experience to get a better practical understanding of luxury hotel operations.

As I previously developed leadership and managerial skills in the finance and real estate fields in my past career, I would like to improve my managerial skills in the hospitality sector, specifically in large luxury hotels and resorts.

I was born in Reunion Island, and I studied in Paris. I started my career in London and then I moved back to Paris. From 2005 to 2020, I traveled extensively in the United States, in Europe, and in Africa. I speak fluently English and French.

My aim for the next few years is to evolve in large luxury hotels and resorts and develop my skills to master all aspects of the rooms division operations before taking the lead of a hotel or resort within the next 5 years.

You will find in me a responsive gentleman with the desire to provide the best service to guests and the eagerness for interacting with people, learning, and taking up more challenges.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I will make sure to be available at your convenience to give you any further information you may require.

Sincerely Yours,

Patrick TERRENTROY
